School Kids Round Up 5 Tons Of Junk

Youngsters Continue To Scour City As Men Behind Nation's Fighting Forces

Children at the grammar school and St. Rita's school have collected an estimated five tons of scrap, and results of final weighing may reveal that they have achieved an even greater effort contributing to the war effort.

Enthusiasm of the youngsters over this war project, which has given them a definite place in the nation's greatest undertaking, has prompted school officials to announce that one and possibly more junk rallys will be held at both schools.

Feeling that by collecting junk they are taking their place with other "men behind the men behind the guns," children have continued to scour the city for all types of salvage. To assist in the collection of larger articles which are too heavy for children to transport to the grammar school junk heap, Carl Hansen, local Ford dealer, has volunteered use of a truck, while another truck from the Passionist Monastery will make heavy collections for the children at St. Rita's school.

During the week trucks loaded with the collected salvage, much of which is the most valuable sort of metal, have rolled out of town to a Monrovia junk yard, and proceeds from the sale will be used by each school for needed supplies not provided for in the regular expenditures.

Residents having salvage which has been missed by the regular pickup are asked to call the grammar school or St. Rita's school and leave addresses where the children may call for collections.

Giant Trees Held Menace

Problem of what to do with Sierra Madre street trees, which because of their huge growth are considered a menace by property owners, is still not definitely decided.

Eucalyptus trees on N. Baldwin avenue bordering the property of W. F. Maloney at the corner of Alegria will be topped, and similar work may proceed on other trees along Baldwin avenue south of Carter. Mrs. L Evans of 450 N. Badlwin has asked that trees near her property be topped before there is a windstorm and S. M. Boone of 365 West Sierra Madre blvd., has requested the removal of trees near his property. Letters containing their requests were referred to Miss Thomasella Graham of the Planing Commision and Marionn L. Hays, street superintendent.

Other requests for removal of parkway trees in various parts of the city have been tabled until next council meeting, October 27.

Season's First Rain Drops Temperature

Temperatures slid down several points here this week as the first rain of the season which began about midnight Sunday brought cooler weather and refreshment to the entire area. Lights Burning In Blackout Periods To Draw Penalties

An ordinance designed to tighten regulations against leaving illumination in or about homes or building without provision for its extinguishment by a competent person over 18 years old within one minute after the commencement of an air raid alarm was adopted by the city council Tuesday evening.

The complete ordinance appears elsewhere in today's issue of the NEWS. Violators will be considered guilty of a misdemeanor punishable with the standard city penalty of $300 fine, three months in jail, or both.

Benefit To Equip First Aid Stations

Rounding out 30 years of sustained activity in Sierra Madre the Dickens Fellowship will celebrate the anniversary of the founding of the local chapter with a Dickens Evening, on the night of Oct. 23, when Clement May, world famous actor now a resident of Sierra Madre, will present "An Evening with Dickens," at the Woman's clubhouse.

This affair will be given as a benefit to raise funds with which to equip first aid dressing stations here, and is being arranged by a committee including Mmes. W. S. Hull, E. G. Everett, E. D. Burbank, Earl Gossard, Homer Glidden and Miss Martha Pitchard.

The Dickens Fellowship, which has its headquarters in England, was founded in 1906, while the local chapter was one of the earliest in the United States.

Meetings of the group include reading aloud from Dicken's books and since 1942 marks his 130th birth anniversary, the reading this year will include "Charles Dickens, The Last of the Great Men" by G. K. Chesterton.

Woman's Injuries Brings Check Up Of City's Sidewalks

Claiming that negligence on the part of the city in not repairing defective sidewalks on the south side of Sierra Madre blvd. between Park avenue and Lima street caused her to fall and receive injuries requiring medical care, Mrs. H. Solie of Lima street, has asked the city council that she be reimbursed for medical expenses and replacement of eye glasses broken from the fall.

A letter from Mrs. Solie stated that she fell on the evening of October 2 injuring one knee and her left eye, and presented snapshots of the sidewalk to prove her contention that the sidewalk is in a dangerous condition. Her letter was referred to Walter Dunn, city attorney.

The council also instructed the meter reader to check on streets, sidewalks and curbs for defects and report in writing to the street superintendent.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

I LIKE to go by Harry Holland's house. It's a modest cottage but the walk in front is always clean, the fences bright with paint, the little yard is neat and well kept and the Stars and Stripes float over all from a flagpole. Any passing stranger feels that good, self-respecting, neighborhood-improving American citizens live there.

New Casualty Depot Gets Workout

Main Station In Grammar School Used In Successful Defense Corps Drill

Preparations are now under way for blacking out part of the kindergarten wing of the public school where the city's chief casualty station will be set up under the direction of Dr. W. B. Heagerty, chief of the emergency medical service, and his adjutant, school superintendent, Gerald Smith.

This station which was used for the first time Monday evening during the regular semi-monthly drill of the Defense Corps, is ideally adapted for the purpose, according to Dr. Heagerty, who announced, however, that because of blackout difficulties, the main kindergarten room will not be used.

Monday's practice drill brought out both efficiencies and defects in the present state of the Defense Corps, Dr. Heagerty said yesterday in giving special praise to the dressing station staff at 240 East Alegria avenue, which functioned admirably, he said.

Warning residents that under real emergency conditions great delays may sometimes occur, Dr. Heagerty stated that "practice" casualties must not feel that they are being neglected if not taken to the casualty station in less than an hour, as under actual conditions they might be expected to wait three times as long before being admitted to a casualty station.

Next Defense Corps drill will be held in two weeks.

Hallowe'en Party And Parade For School Children

Members of the Sierra Madre PTA will meet in the grammar school library at 3 o'clock today to hear Mrs. L. E. Sutherland, past president First district, speak on "Understanding Our Neighbors." The talk will be followed by a children's program and a get-acquainted tea.

Other programs and projects discussed at the board meeting last Thursday will include a Hallowe'en party and costume parade for all the children, on Friday, October 30, in the school auditorium, and the football circus scheduled for November 11 in the Pasadena Rose Bowl.

Mt. Trail ave., is now a Captain in the Army Air Corps.

Collection Of Rubbish Is Curbed

A resolution regulating the future collection of combustible rubbish in the city was adopted by the city council Tuesday evening, designating the last Wednesday of each month as rubbish collection day west of Baldwin avenue, while collections east of Baldwin will be made the first Wednesday of each month.

According to the resolution, "no combustible rubbish shall be accepted for collection unless same shall be deposited in the parkway adjoining the premises from which same is to be collected, and no collection of such rubbish will be made from any premises within the city if it exceeds two cubic yards in size in aggregate for each collection, nor if any single article of combustible rubbish exceeds one hundred pounds in weight."

Injured Survivor Of Cruiser Astoria Visits Fiance Here.

On leave to recuperate from multiple injuries received in the Solomon Island battle when his ship, the USS Astoria, was fired and sunk by the Japanese, Edgar W. Burton, aviation radioman with the Navy has been in town this week to visit his fiance, Miss Leora Pearson, and her family. He is now enroute to Croydon, Iowa, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burton, but expects to return to Sierra Madre later in the month.

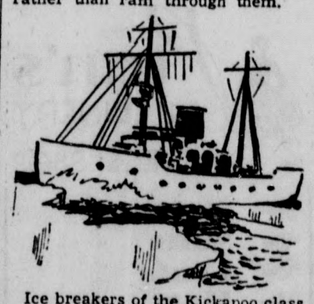

Mr. Burton who has been in the Navy two and a half years and in the Pacific 18 months, saw service in the Midway and Coral Sea battles without injury, but sustained serious shrapnel wounds during the Solomon fighting. One of several men cut off from regular means of rescue by fires which swept the Astoria, he remained in the water more than six hours before being picked up by another United States vessel, danger of lurking submarines making rescue almost impossible for many hours.

Two Sierra Madreans Join Air Corps

Most recent Sierra Madre Air Corps recruits are Stanton Irvine, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Irvine of San Gabriel Court who has enlisted and is now awaiting call to train for the armored division, and James Gingerich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gingrich, who left yesterday to serve with the Inspection Division of the Air Corps.

WAR BONDS

It is imperative that the ship lanes be kept free of ice. With American troops occupying Iceland and the Navy using the northern route for transportation of supplies to Russia, ice breakers are essential to Naval operations. The ice breaker is a specially constructed ship with heavily armored bows and powerful engines that crush the ice floes rather than ram through them.

Ice breakers of the Kickapoo class operating in the North Atlantic cost approximately $10,000,000. You can help our Navy build these ships by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday. Deferments In Draft To Be Short

Board Here Told That Men Qualified For Army Service May Only Be 'Loaned'

Instrucitons to draft boards from Lt. Col. Kenneth Leitch, state director of selective service providing a temporary status for classifications for class 2B and 2A, have been received at draft board 191 at Monrovia.

These classifications permit only temporary deferment for a period not to exceed six moths, according to Col. Leitch, and men so classified must consider themselves as "loaned" to industry by the armed forces only for the necessary period required to train replacements or to adjust business arrangements.

Men who are physically able to serve with the armed forces and who have no young children depending on them must realize that they will be called for service with the army and must in no sense expect permanent deferment, Col. Leitch said.

Dr. Peterson Takes Officer's Oath; Is Honored By Kiwanis

Though he will not report for duty until October 16, Captain M. H. A. Peterson is actually in the Army now. The well known local M.D. took the officer's oath before City Judge Tom Neale late last week.

Tuesdays' luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club was in the nature of a farewell party for Dr. Peterson. Under the caption "Sierra Madre's Loss," the Kiwanis weekly bulletin had this to say of the doctor:

"This week's bulletin is dedicated to an exemplary Kiwanian, a good fellow, a fine gentleman and an outstanding medical man, Mervin H. A. Peterson, M.D., now Capt. Peterson, U.S.A. The Army's gain is sadly a very serious community loss . . . He sacrifices much to serve his country as a volunteer medico. We will miss his charm, his wit, his musical talent and most of all, his understanding and ability as our "country doctor." God go with you, Doctor Peterson, may your tribe increase and may you return safely to us."

Sharing the spotlight at the Kiwanis luncheon was Oscar Rasbach, a former Sierra Madrean who has become an outstanding composer. Mrs. Olive Riherd, accompanied at the piano by her husband, Gus Riherd, paid tribute to Mr. Rasbach by singing one of his better known songs. Capt. Peterson, in uniform, then completed the program with four more Rasbach songs, ending with "Trees."

Acknowledging the 15th anniversary of the Sierra Madre Club, Dr. Raymond Simpson gave a short resume of the organization's activities.

New Guinea Action Agrees With Young Russ Lovejoy

Army life in the Australia area agrees with young Russell Lovejoy. In addition to a beard he has taken on over 30 pounds in weight and is now six feet tall, he told his mother, Mrs. Helen Lovejoy, in a letter just received from his in New Guinea. Of course he could tell nothing about the action he has seen and been in, but he seems to have a hunch his outfit may get a furlough soon. Most recent letter from his father, Russell Lovejoy, Sr., indicated he was in the north of Ireland.

Physical Tests For Cafe Employees No Longer Required

An ordinance repealing those sections of a city health ordinance requiring physical examination and registration of all food handlers, and certain other rules and regulations pertaining to the operation of restaurants, cafes and eating places in the city was was passed by the city council Tuesday, on recommendation of the county health department, as not essential to the health of the community. Similar action is being taken by cities throughout the county. The ordinance in its entirety appears elsewhere in the NEWS.

Service Stations To Issue Cards For Gas Registration

Gas service stations have received word that on or before October 27 they will be furnished blank forms for distribution among car owners which when filled out will constitute an owners appliaction for a gas rationing card. The owner will have to give much information about the use to which his or her car is to be put, approximate mileage required for essential driving, number of tires owned and the serial numbers of each. Registration of applicants for gas will be made at the school house in Sierra Madre on November 9 and gas rationing will become effective Novembre 22.

Offer Names For Local Ration Board

In response to a Federal request for Sierra Madre appointees to serve as members of the Trade Relations Committee of the War Price and Rationing Board, Mayor Thomas Schwartz has sent in the names of Mrs. J. P. Nash, Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin, Mrs. Frank Spencer and Mrs. Steve O'Donnell to the Monrovia rationing board with recommendation that they form the Sierra Madre commtitee.

Duties of the committee will include a survey of town stores to ascertain whether merchants are conforming to price and rationing restrictions, and a program of education designed to meet the inquiries of any merchants who may be confused on certain rulings.

Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard has been recommended as Sierra Madre representative on the three man gasoline panel.

City Council Pays Tribute To New Army Captain

Formal recognition of his fine work as chief medical officer of the Sierra Madre Casualty Station and his patriotism in leaving an established practice to join the medical corps of the United States Army, was given to Dr. M. H. A. Peterson by the city council Tuesday evening.

A resolution was adopted by the council, expressing appreciation of the council and residents of the city to Dr. Peterson "for the many fine services rendered by him to the City of Sierra Madre as one of its outstanding citizens and in particular for his patriotism in giving his time and talents as chief medical officer of the casualty station.."

The resolution will go into the city records and a copy will be presented to Dr. Peterson, who as Capt. Peterson, will leave Saturday to report for duty at San Francisco.

Longer Vacations For Students In Holiday Season

Sierra Madre children attending Pasadena schools will have an extra week's vacation at Christmas time this year, but students ta the grammar school will enjoy only the regular two weeks from December 18 to January 4.

Action of the Pasadena Board of Education in extending the Christmas holiday was prompted by holiday labor shortages in stores where older students may help out by filling in as extra employees.

Thanksgiving vacation this year will fall on Nov. 26, the traditional Thanksgiving day, and the following Friday.

Ordinance To Make Dimout Effective

Street Lamps To Wear Hoods Or Be Painted Black; Hits Householders

Final decision on a method of controlling Sierra Madre street lighting to conform to Lt. Gen. John L. DeWitt's most recent dimout order is being witheld pending recommendation from Edison Company engineers, according to Mayor Thomas Schwartz.

Indications are that the city will either paint the upper half of street light globes or install shades which will extend to the horizontal, above which no light may be emitted, according to provisions of the new dimout edict which becomes effective October 25.

The proclamation which applies to further dimming out of signs, floodlighting, display and store and household interior lighting, as well as to street and highway lights and general out door illumination to reduce the skyglow in costal areas, is on file at the city hall, and copies will be distributed to sector air raid wardens and other civilian defense key personnel.

A uniform dimout ordinance recommended by the California League of Cities and putting DeWitt's regulations into effect, received its first reading at the council meeting Tuesday evening and will be finally adopted by the council at its October 27 session.

Penalty for violation of the ordinance is a fine of $300, three months in jail, or both, whil under Gen. DeWitt's orders fenders may be excluded the territory of the Weste fense Command.

First Aide Every Hom

Again seeking to assure every means of protection for Sierra Madreans during an emergency, C. W. Jones, Red Cross chairman, announces that five qualified first aid instructors are now conducting classes and that enrollment is open for afternoon or evening instruction.

Goal of the local chapter is "one or more first aid graduates in every home," so that every family may be prepared in advance to meet any emergency which may arise.

Public Warned Not To Store Gasoline

Warning all property owners that the storage of gasoline on private property nullifies fire insurance, Fire Chief Wm. Richards this week asked the cooperation of townspeople in compliance with the city ordinance which forbids such storage.

"Keeping gasoline stored in tanks on private property is not only against the law, it nullifies insurance, is like storing dynamite, and is highly dangerous for the whole community. Don't do it," Chief Richards said.

Tom O'Grady With Navy In Solomons

Among Sierra Madre boys now fighting somewhere in the Solomon Island zone with the Navy is Tommy O'Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Grady of 515 Manzanita avenue, whose other son, John O'Grady recently enlisted in the Navy also. A recent letter from Tommy says he is well and evidently he is enjoying the great adventure. John is at the San Diego Naval Training School.

"There is no greater need in the nation now than an increased enrollment fo nurses aides," C. W. Jones, chairman of the Sierra Madre Red Cross said yesterday. Staffs of civilian hospitals are rapidly being depleted by enlistment of nurses for military service and unless an increased number of women volunteer to assist the registered nurses who must carry on, hospital treatment will be greatly impaired, Mr. Jones said.

Nurses Aides are also serving in military hospitals on the mainland, relieving the burden of work which would otherwise fall on registered nurses who are thus enabled to perform greater technical service to war casualites.

Complete information regarding the program for nurses aides is available at Red Cross headquarters.

New Nuisance From Neighboring Dams Feeds On Gold Fish In Garden Pools

Gray, long-legged cranes, coming into Sierra Madre from neighboring dams are making the lives of Sierra Madre gold fish miserable, according to W. L. Whitson of South Baldwin avenue who has asked the city for a permit to carry firearms, so that he can protect the fish in his garden pool.

Tall cranes standing in the pool feasting on prized gold fish have become a common occurance, according to Mr. Whitson, while Joseph Russell reports that his stock of gold fish has been completely gobbled up by the visitors, which have increased in number since the contsruction of dams along the foothill area.

Mr. Whitson also reports an influx of skunks and possums which are attacking his garden. His request for firearms was refered to Police Chief Gordon McMillan.

STAR SPANGLED SERVICE
THE work of banks has acquired more and more of a patriotic hue. Starting a couple of years back with the first "defense" loans there came a rapid procession of big war jobs for banks to do. The war work of banks already represents, in the words of President Roosevelt, "a record of accomplishment of which you all may be justly proud." But our bank, like so many others, considers our job only started. We know there will be new and heavier demands on us from our country, and we are ready to serve.

DISCUSSION OF NOVEMBER BALLOT PROPOSALS SCHEDULED FOR THE WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE

As a public service to Sierra Madre, the Woman's Club has voted to open the clubhouse to the community for discussion of measures which will be voted on at the November 3 election. Speakers will appear to present both sides of each proposition which comes up for discussion and the public will be invited to attend these meetings, date of which will be announced later.

Continuing its policy of community service the club at Wednesday's meeting arranged to hold the next regular session at the Wistaria Vine Gardens, so that the clubhouse may be available for use of the Red Cross Mobile Blood Bank on that day.

Program at the Vine will be a good will motion picture titled "Not Charity by a Chance."

Camp Fire Girls To Join War Effort By Fat Collections

The Sierra Madre Camp Fire Girls, keeping apace with the times, will join in the war effort by collecting grease and waste fats accumulated by housewives throughout the town. The girls will meet Saturdays at the grammar school to paint red, white and blue cans for their collections.

CANYON TOMATO CROP DUCKS THE BLIGHT

While most home gardeners and professional produce growers throughout the state have been moaning over the almost complete loss of their tomato crop this year, Fred Neville, a resident of Canyon Park, has gone to the other extreme and raised one beefsteak vine which now stands 10 feet 2 inches high and has already produced 17 huge luscious tomatoes.

Mr. Neville, who lives at 679 Brookside lane has special planting and watering methods for tomatoes and has also had fine success with squash and Kentucky Wonder beans.

As It Appears To me

¶ Well, it seems that the old saying about pride going before a fall still holds true, and last week just after the NEWS had been pushing out its chest, we, collectively got out one of the worst papers on record and were practically brought level with the ground in consequence. Only bright gleam shafting through our very dark Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when a good part of the town stopped in to point out one blunder or another, was the realization that the paper must certainly be read to the last line, or readers simply couldn't find such obscure errors (not that all of last week's were obscure, by any means). So to all of you— we acknowledge that we were terrible—but we alone can't be good all the time and you must remember that we ARE at a disadvantage because all of our blunders are right there in black and white for you and posterity to shake your heads over. Now if we were just in a business where all our blunders didn't have to appear in print—such a life!

¶ Worst part of the whole matter however, is still to come and we are subject to no little apprehension in the meantime. We know we're going to get it and even the editor is not unmindful of a very kindly but nevertheless firm reprimand which is due to arrive any day now from Philadelphia. It won't be harsh but it will be reminiscent of the times when we were laid low by just one look from our mothers. So here we sit waiting and trying to phrase an air tight alibi which has to do with labor shortage, doubling up on work and other such matters. Maybe our readers will understand if we explain that the labor shortage hit us with the suddeness of a bombing, and almost as disastrously.

¶ From the vineyards of the Sierra Vista Ranch, near Delano, Mrs. Caukin shipped a fine box of assorted grapes last week and they remained here in the office window for several days attracting attention of scores of townsfolk. To make the farm exhibit complete, Harry Hawxhurst brought in from his Victory garden a sunflower measuring over 15 inches in diameter, and really a challenge to any gardener —even in Kansas. Almost every one going by has stopped to look at it.

¶ Most colorful and original description of a modern hair style came this morning from Dick Hawks,who dropped into the office, and after one look at Libby's new hair do, observed "It looks just like a P40 about to take off in the teeth of a boombing gale!" Not bad, Dick, not bad.

¶ ABOUT WOMEN — P. L Bonebrake brought me the following Mexican "proverb," as he calls it—and if I believed that his opinions were similar I would certainly stop waving across the street to him, even though he is doing his best to keep neighboring soldiers in reading matter. Here is the "proverb," for the pleasure of you who subscribe to the masculine-feminine feud:

"When Ada's rib was extracted for the making of Eve, both the Lord and the devil were present, and each took turns to endow her with qualities that each approved.

"Her tongue shall be bieer and always flapping," said the devil.

"Her heart shall be tender," said the Lord.

"Until her brain is developed," said the devil.

"She shall adore children," said the Lord.

"But dresses still more," added the devil.

"She shall be beautiful," said the Lord.

"And therefore idle and useless," said the devil.

"She shall make her own clothes," said the Lord, "and therefore have little time for mischief."

"Until foolish man invents the weaving mill to make them for her," replied the devil.

"Get thee gone below, foul fiend, men shall call her an Angel," said the Lord.

"And when she is bad, she shall fill with envy," said the devil flapping his tail, and diving into a cloud to escape the lightning in God's eye."

A.L.A. Activities

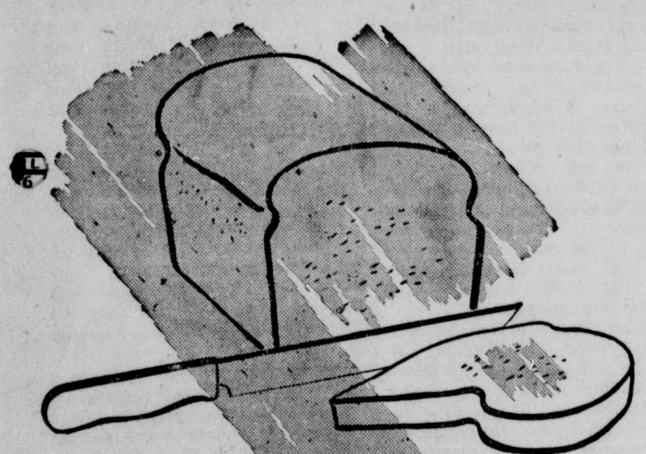

November is membership month. At the end of the fiscal year, August 20th, the National books showed an all time high enrollment of 534,083 members in the American Legion Auxiliary. During the coming Auxiliary year, Membership Chairman Lucile Pickett states there will be even a greater need of members in our organization, for we will have new problems to face. Consolation for mothers and sympathetic understanding of the problems of the young war bride are matters of great concern at this time. Those who have passed through the crucible of war know that nothing can take the place of warm-hearted, personal friendship and interest of one who has had like sorrow. Our Unit is planning for a Food Sale around Armistice day, proceeds to be used for Xmas gifts for boys in the service. Our October 22nd meeting will be held at the home of Martha Marshall, 226 Olivera pl., at 2 o'clock. Meet at Picketts service station at 1:45 for transportation.

THINK of the ersatz food eaten by Axis-dominated people and thank Providence for our rolling fields of grain, our vitamin-rich bread that helps to keep us a healthy Nation; a Nation determined to remain strong and free.

Union Pacific plays its part in building a healthy America by hauling tons of grain and other western-grown products for our homes and our men in service. It plays its part in maintaining American freedom by transporting huge shipments of armament, trainloads of troops over "the Strategic Middle Route" uniting the East with the West.

All Union Pacific employes realize that this is a job that must be done—and they're doing it. Day in and day out, they're "keeping 'em rolling" to back up Uncle Sam.

YOUTH IN WAR

The American family is at war. It isn't just a matter of Dad in the service and Mother in the factory. Young America, too, has joined in the fight and is doing yoeman service along the home front.

We have talked of stockpiles of rubber and steel. What about manpower, future manpower which some day will direct the destiny of the nation for which we are now fighting? The younger generation cannot be at the front or on the production line. But it has not retired to the playground.

No, the youngsters have taken their places on the home front, in the collection of scrap, in the sale of War Bonds and in the countless little duties necessary to the smooth performance of the civilian defense machine. From the youngster who sells his pony and does odd jobs in order to buy bonds, to the schoolboy who saved the day when he discovered a leak in a local gas line, the youngster of America are living up to their heritage.

It is for these youngsters as well as all the rest of us that our soldiers are fighing and our industries are producing. They are the future guardians of the peace and the developers of the structurs upon which our nation was founded. When victory comes, our children will know what it means because they have taken an active part in winning it.

YOUR LITTLE COUNTS

Because the junk yards have piles of scrap metal stored in them, too many are prone to think that the plea for every piece of junk is not so urgent as it sounds. Such a presumption would be tragically wrong.

The junk in the junk yards is like money in the bank. It is there, ready for use. It is moving into the factories while other stores of junk take its place in the yards. The scrap which lies in your yard, or stored in your attic or garage, is doing nobody any good.

It belongs in the junk yards, where it can be put into service as needed. And the need is growing desperate. The junk yards are licensed, and the War Production Board knows what is on hand in each. Much of the scrap in this area will be used during the winter, when the weather in the north and east will hamper collections. We have too little. Every effort you can make, no matter how little your conributions may be, will be worth while.

A PAIR OF PATRIOTS

The story of the two-man company that recently received a large flag poster from the War Production Board, "in recognition of the example the entire working force of your plant is setting for the rest of the nation," should be an inspiration to every man and woman engaged in war production.

Before the war they made pulleys and repaired machiney in a small shop in Bay City, Mich. Now they are making steel flanges for wooden pipes in large war plants.

These two men, Jake and Percy Fogelsonger, of 79 years old have been working 15 hours a day, seven days a week, since the war was declared— and in that time have made more than eighteen thousand flanges.

Jake and the "old gent" are typical of the true American spirit— the "do or die" spirit evident in all patriotic Americans that say, "it shall be done." They are doing a job that they know has to be done and are putting everything they have into it.

The.... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

INDIA, with a population of all colors and a thousand creeds; with more than a hundred language groups; with a history running back to God knows when. We thought of this when another friend of ours brought up the subject of Ghandi vs. Churchill. India, with a population almost three times that of the United States in an area only a third as large. Once we saw a race-riot in New York's Harlem; and these were Christian brethren lambasting each other—their hate and their cleavage based on color only, plus the incidentals derivative from color. But in India...Oh, what's the use!

BUT, just suppose! Suppose a lot of Englishmen—some of them eminent, like some Americans now commenting on British affairs — should begin telling us what we should do about our Negro problem; or suppose even that some plumb dumb Yanks from anywhere north of the old Mason and Dixon line should go down into Gene Talmage's Georgia and try to tell him and his friends how Negroes should be treated. We've lived a lot in the South—we love it; but we're convinced there's many a place down there where some new John Brown could get up another "tragedy of Harper's Ferry," any day without half trying. And this, all among Americans — Americans against Americans, all of them Christian, all of them Protestant even; and the bad-blood spurting all on account of other Americans, of another color, yet Christian, also.

NEVERTHELESS, Americans now trying to take over the management of British affairs in India. Mad at England. Mad at Churchill. Imputing lies to Britain's leaders—even to such a leader as Richard Stafford Cripps. We hope Hitler wasn't listening to that broadcast we were listening to the other day Pearl Buck, a little shrill, with her head a bit turned, we thought, with too much glory, too much deference, and also somewhat askew because of her Chinese complex, lambasting Britain as though Britain were Germany and India Poland. Then Louis Fischer, top-notch journalist but lop-sided for Gandhi, Nehru, and the Congress Party in general—as if these were all there was to the current dispute. These two, the Buck-Fischer duo, passionately trying to impugn the honesty, the logic, and the informed and loyal humanitarianism of Bertrand Russell.

AH well! Personally, we're profoundly ignorant about India. Although we've read a good many books about it — some of which, at least, were written by Hindus. Also, for several years, happily, we had a Hindu teacher, the learned and gentle Jagadish Chandra Chatterji, great scholar and friend of Tagore. But his talk was mostly about holy things—Masters, the Vedas, Krishna, Buddha, the Christian Logos. We've known quite a few other Hindus not so holy—although one of them, who passed through Hollywood, was calling himself "the Perfect Master" and claiming to be Gandhi's spiritual mentor. Still, certain great truths, germane to the present discussion, stand out in such a way that—so it would seem —even the ignorant might know them for what they are and act accordingly.

FIRST of all, of course, is the truth that we're at war and that Britain is our ally; and, indubitably, our most trusted ally. We can say that Britain is our most trusted ally without invidious comparison simply because the British are so nearly like ourselves. After all, run over the list of our national forebears: Washington, Adams, Madison, Jefferson— and extend the list to the end of the page. All English names. Or, if the list takes in also its modicum of Irish, Dutch, French, and so on, the same is true of the names in Britain's own history. We're trusting this ally now enough to give her a million of our youth as hostage to this trust. Yet we —some of us do— pretend to distrust her plighted word to India.

THERE'S the oft-stated truth that nations, like men, are the creatures of their past. Consider Britain's history— say, from the days of the conquests and settlements of the Saxons, the Angles and Jutes. When the Normans came, four or five centuries later, they found a united people like themselves—freedom-lovers and with democracy already in the bud. Less than a century after Magna Charta the Parliament we know today was taking shape. Parliament— and Freedom—grew and strengthened through all the wars that followed—the Hundred Years War, the Wars of the Roses, the Civil and the Foreign Wars all down through the centuries; just as Parliament and Freedom will emerge from this present War grown and strengthened.

BRITAIN is a wise old nation. She is brave and great. She has profoundly learned through suffering. She'll settle her Indian problem. Maybe she'll ask us to help— and ask China and Russia also to help, just as Bertrand Russell says she may. But, in the meantime, let's bend our thought to winning the War —through a perfect Unity, and a perfect Trust in all our Allies. If we have any time to spare we have our own troubles calling for charity and wisdom.

UNUSUAL WEATHER AT THE PLAYHOUSE

Mistake No. 1 for the nice lady from Cleveland with the two daughters was when she took a real estate tour instead of a sightseeing bus the minute she hit Southern California. "Very Unusual Weather," the Gene Stone-Jack Robinson comedy, comes to Pasadena Community Playhouse stage, Ocotber 14 to 25, to tell how this same lady raises a bumper crop of laughter in a newly acquired hacienda in North Hollywood. It's a guffaw-girded satire on Southern California's sun-baked natives and their customs.

Maxwell Anderson's timely drama, "The Eve of St. Mark," closes its run October 11.

HEROES

By MARY WARD

We are proud and yet are saddened
When our men are called to arms;
Men who spent their boyhood
Far from war's alarms.

In our country with its culture
Where Democracy was taught,
Far from the Madman's hatred
With conquest his one thought.

We have men in the bleak Aleutians
And defending Southern Isles,
While mothers, wives and sweethearts
Hide heartache with brave smiles.

So many unsung Heroes
Fought for freedom through the years,
Why must the Allied Nations
Know "blood and sweat and tears?"

Sierra Madre, Oct. 12, 1942

Business alone will be paying $2,500,000,000 more of the world record breaking income tax bill than 132 million Americans will pay in individual income taxes, according to Wm. P. Witherow, president of the American Manufacturers Ass'n.

Congress will send the President soon a set of amendments liberalizing relief and benefits under soldiers and sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940. Among other things the amount of insurance which the Government agrees to protect for a serviceman is increased from $5,000 to $10,000.

The Army and Navy are tightening up on commissioning of civilians. Temporary freeze orders have been issued in some sections. In the Army air force alone more than 200,000 applications for commissions are pending. Few will be granted in the near future.

Lifeboats for Liberty ships are now being made out of plywood by Oregon manufacturers. While the total cost equals that of metal boats, use of plywood saves a ton of metal per boat and the boats have passed every safety test.

In 1941, failure of drivers to signal or give proper signals resulted in accidents in which 760 persons were killed and more than 84,000 were injured.

The nation is witnessing a history-making exodus of manpower from civilian life into war industries and the armed forces. By the end of this year, say Selective Service officials, the army will have claimed nearly 4,500,000. The promise of a long, gruelling war is evident in forecasts of a total enlistment of 13 million men in the military services. To date, we have not even yet reached the half-way mark. Speaking before the Women in Industry Conference in San Francisco the other day, Lt. Col. Harshman of the Army's Service of Supply, warned that the reserve of male workers is nearly exhausted. Right now, states the women's bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor, less than 3 million women are engaged in war industries. Homes, offices and schools must supply a giant labor brigade of some 5 million additional women. As taxi drivers, hotel clerks, street car conductors, bus drivers, as copy girls in newspaper offices and as acting executives in business organizations, they are beginning to fill labor's depleted ranks.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR—

Recent additions to the variety in the quick-frozen food field are beef stew, chicken a la king and sweet potatoes. And expected soon are these others: frogs legs, soft shell crabs, and mixed fruits and vegetables ... A greasless cream especially designed to protect workmen's hands. It is intended to be used as an invisible film which will be washed off at the end of a day with soap and water, carrying the grime with it ...Plastic spoons, forks and knives, extremely light in weight ...And the buttons on postmen's uniforms will no longer be made of brass, but of plastic.

MARCH OF RIMES

By H. F. NOAKE

HELPY-SELFY

In most California cities, are stores where you just help yourself, especially grocery emproriums, with eatments on shelf after shelf. You enter through one of those turnstiles, then choose from huge baskets, piled high, which fits on a portable gadget that's pushed here and there as you buy. Your list may include many items, from cocoa to canned liverwurst, and should you be new at this racket it's hard to know where to start first. With thousands of cans peeking at you and mountains of rolls, bread, and cake, like dining in large cafeterias, the question is, which shall I take? Why don't they name aisles the same as our streets, then road maps the store could provide: or, follow the plan of every Worlds Fair and supply new accounts with a guide. With basket a groaning you pay and start home, then suddenly, comes a sharp pain; you forgot to get chow chow, spaghetti and prunes, which means— go all through it again.

REVERENT OBSERVANCE OF BIBLE WEEK URGED ON PEOPLE IN THIS CRITICAL PERIOD

By RALPH H. TAYLOR

(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

In the midst of a desperate war to save our country from being overrun and despoiled by wanton aggressors, with not only our American way of life at issue, but with the liberty of most of the civilized world hanging in the balance, the United States needs more than strength of arms —more than tanks and Flying Fortresses; more than all-out production from its farms and factories.

We, the people of the United States, have a very real need for the deep, abiding faith, and the strong religious convictions of our American forefathers; we have need to reconsecrate ourselves to the principles of right and decency—of truth and consideration for the rights of others —which have made America the citidal of human liberty.

Therefore, this writer believes that this week it is within his province...to urge the people of California to participate, earnestly and recerently, in the observance of the second annual Bible Week, which began the second Monday in October.

The desire for religious freedom gave birth to America—and out of religious faith today must come the courage and the evergrowing drive to save America. The Bible came to this country with the Pilgrim Fathers— and the Bible today is still a constant source of strength and comfort during times of stress and uncertainty in millions of homes throughout America.

As we commemorate Bible Week this year... as we go about our daily work, we need to put the Golden Rule into practical operation more frequently, so that we shall be worthy of the sacrifices of not only our forefathers, but of sons and brothers who are dying that we may live and work and worship as free men.

Local Duck Hunters Off On Last Trip

With the gas and tire situation what it is, several of Sierra Madre's crack shots left yesterday for what may be their last duck hunting expedition for the duration. The duck season opens today and dawn probably found Judge Tom Neale and Police Chief McMillan firing away from the shores of the Salton Sea. Fred LaLone wouldn't give his destination when he departed.

The Automobile Club of Southern California advises that there are plenty of ducks on Big Bear Lake where hunting will be allowed again this year, and on Railroad Canyon Reservoir, Cuyamaca Lake, Lake Henshaw and in the rice fields of Imperial Valley.

YOUNG PEOPLE GOING TO WHITTIER MEET

An invitation to all interested young people to attend the Nazarene Young Peoples Society Zone meeting in Whittier Friday evening, has been extended by Mrs. Alvin Bentz. Anyone over 12 years of age may attend. A bus will leave the church here at 6:30.

What They Say ---

Dr. Raymond Moley, economist and associate editor of News-Week, in Commonwealth Club address at Palace Hotel, San Francisco—"Congress must put a definite ceiling on all prices and wages and it must pass a tax bill that stops the flow of money into things. The present bill is all floors and no ceiling."

Ralph H. Taylor, executive secretary Agricultural Council of California — "There is grave danger to the nation in any program that deals drastically with prices but deals tenderly and gingerly with wages."

Superior Judge Henry M. Willis, Hollywood, on granting divorce to Actress Margaret Hayes after 28-day marriage to Actor Leif Erickson— "If gasoline rationing serves no other purpose than to stop runaway marriages to Yuma and Las Vegas, it will be a good thing."

Lost and found columns of Tokio newspapers are crowded these days. Every time an American buys a War Bond, the Japs lose face. Buy your 10% every pay day.

EYE OPENERS --- by Bob Crosby

When firing large 16-inch guns, the rotation of the earth must be taken into consideration. The projectile will travel, at certain ranges, 100 yards farther when fired to the east, and will fall 100 yards short when fired to the west.

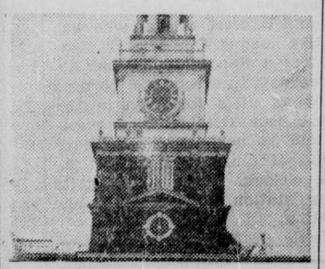

Wild onion grows as a weed in some sections of the United States. Dairymen are always fearful when their stock gets into these fields, for it spoils the milk!

In 1909, at Dominguez Field in Los Angeles County, natural gas, being lighter than air, was used to inflate the balloons for America's first air races. No one, at that time, guessed that 28 years later 6,000,000 people in California would use this natural fuel for cooking, water heating, house heating and refrigeration.

Even today several tribes of the Amerindians in the Parana-Amazon region of South America exist entirely by their bows and arrows. Here in the United States we exist by our wits, so try this Guess Again Quiz and sharpen them up.

Judge Sturgeon Favored by Azusa Publisher

Editorial Appearing in Azusa Herald, entitled

THE BIG FIGHT AHEAD

"The race close to us will be for Justice of the Peace of Monrovia Township, where Judge John Sturgeon was given a very narrow margin over Alvin Hahn in the primaries. The Herald continues to stand on its pre-primary recommendation that Sturgeon's experience and judicial record in this court entitle him to re-election. He may or may not make it, for the longer a judge serves the more enemies he makes, as every traffic violator, small debtor and other loser in court becomes an "anti" in the next election. Hahn made a vigorous campaign and spent a great deal of money, but at no time did he attack Sturgeon's record, which is significant. In fact, his biggest talking point seemed to be that he should have the job instead of the present judge because Sturgeon is also city judge of Monrovia —a questionable argument where ability not unemployment, should be the keynote. Hahn's campaign did not reflect the judicial calm and dignity which a judge should have; he can win more friends in the finals if he will stick to his own ability to serve as a justice of the peace, rather than admitting his opponent's ability by pointing out that he holds two judgeships (as did John Durrell in the old Azusa township, and what was wrong with that?)."

JIM WHITE

JIM WHITE is any Edison employee. Jim does not think of himself as a hero or a soldier. He is, nevertheless, a fighter for freedom, for he and thousands of Edison employees keep flowing night and day the electric power which is the life-blood of our war industries.

Edison was ready when Southern California industry began its important part in the war production. Only the American Way could have anticipated and organized for such a need as Southern California now serves.

MAIL SOLDIERS' XMAS GIFTS BEFORE NOVEMBER 1.

READ THE RULES—The following rules, issued by the Postoffice Department in cooperation with the Army Postal Service of the War Department, apply to the mailing of Christmas parcels for members of our Armed Forces serving outside the continental limits of the United States.

TIME OF MAILING—Christmas parcels and greeting cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942, the earlier the better. Each package should be endorsed "Christmas Parcel." Special effort will be made for delivery in time for Christmas.

SIZE AND WEIGHT—Christmas parcels shall not exceed 11 pounds in weight, or 18 inches in length or 42 inches in length and girth combined. However, the public has been urged to cooperate by voluntarily restricting parcels to the size of an ordinary shoe box and the weight to six pounds.

USE CARE IN PREPARATION—Remembering the great distance this mail will be transported and the necessary storage and frequent handling, it is absolutely necessary that articles be packed in substantial boxes or containers and be covered with wrappers of sufficient strength to resist pressure of other mail. Each parcel is subject to censorship and delay may be minimized by securing covering to permit ready inspection of contents.

PROHIBITED MATTER—Intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons or compositions likely to damage mails are unmailable. No perishable matter should be included in parcels.

HOW TO ADDRESS PARCELS—Addresses must be legible. Parcels addressed to overseas Army personnel should show in addition to the full name and address of the sender, the name rank, Army serial number, branch of service, organization, A.P.O. number of the addressee and the postoffice through which parcels are to be routed. Units located within the continental United States may be addressed direct, using name, rank, organization and location.

POSTAGE MUST BE FULLY PREPAID—The rate on parcels of fourth-class matter (exceeding eight ounces) being the zone rate applicable from the postoffice where mailed to the postoffice in the care of which parcels are addressed.

GREETING MESSAGES PERMISSIBLE—Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas", "Don't open until Christmas" and the like may be placed on the covering of the parcel if it does not interfere with the address. Cards may be enclosed and books may bear a simple dedicatory inscription.

INSURANCE AND REGISTRY—Gifts of value should be insured. Articles of small size and considerable value should be sealed and sent as first-class registered mail.

MONEY ORDERS—The Army Postal Service recommends use of postal money orders to transmit gifts of money to members of Armed Forces outside the United States. These are cashed at A.P.O. in local foreign currency at rate of exchange on date of presentation.

Preparation For War Service Sends P.J.C. Enrollment To New High

Greatest enrollment in the history of the Pasadena Junior College is announced by Dr. John A. Sexson, school superintendent, who says total enrollment has reached 8019 students at the two campuses.

There are 5044 enrolled for regular day classes while 1975 are taking special classes connected with the war effort, and another 1000 have enrolled for defense classes.

Although registration has outdistanced that of any previous year, students enrolled for regular daytime classes are 1406 less than last year, due to enlistments in the armed services; and transference to war training classes.

Special class enrollment includes 958 students in extended day classes and 522 enrolled for special courses in nutrition, foods, lip reading, spelling, English and languages. Seventy-five youths are now taking Civilian Pilot training at Baker while 100 are receiving off reservaton training. Two classes in engineering, science management war training, have attracted 220 students, and an additional 100 are receiving instruction in secretarial and Army stenographic classes.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

We passed through the summer without a fire call and now to escape the dangerous season before the rains soak the ground to promote green growth. Do not let up on the carefulness that has been in practice in the summer. Sunday's welcome rain won't begin to remove the fire hazard. It is with great pride that we speak of our low fire loss in Sierra Madre.

There has been no deer meat to adorn the table of the reporter as yet, although several of our huntsmen have promised. Duck season will soon be here and as usual, we can expect to learn that "Judge" Neale and Chief McMillan spent a cold night along the banks of some lake. They have never yet, as far as has been known, made a display of their catch or shoot. It appears that they get the most pleasure from being in the brush.

UNCENSORED

By LEONE BAXTER

Superman in all his bicepular glory, playing his lone hand against some diabolical scheme to disintegrate the world, has nothing on the ordinary citizen, aroused to patriotic heights by the suspicious behavior of a possible spy, saboteur or fifth columnist.

Modern fiction, movies and plays daily witness the utter simplicity of outwitting not merely the evildoers, but the police force—inevitably, as it turns out, somewhat on the slow-witted side anyhow.

Just any man can't do it, of course. The successful spy-hunter must combine some of the shrewdness of a Sherlock Holmes, the suavity of an Ellery Queen, the deviousness of a Green Hornet— and if he can muster it, the sophistication of a Thin Man. The vast number of men who feel they fit that description are a constant amazement to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Always popular, the amateur detective game multiplies its fascination in war times. Many a spy case, after occupying the FBI for months, has been tipped over —suddenly and prematurely— by a budding Dr. Watson, breathlessly following his own clues.

To help avoid such catastrophies J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the G-Men, warns citizens who have information or even suspicions of situations possibly dangerous to national security, to report them immediately to the FBI. The department would rather have thousands of useless "clues" reported—and every one, by the way, is meticulously followed up—than to have a case upset and suspects scattered by an untimely warning.

Hoover formulates six rules to guide the public in its sleuthing:

1—Report to the FBI immediately any person or situation you know of personally that may be dangerous to the national welfare or security.

2—Don't even attempt to evaluate your information. What may seem trivial to you may fit into the intricate pattern of a case being investigated from coast to coast.

3—Don't become agitated if nothing apparently is done about your tip to the FBI. Rest assured that every scrap of information, however small, is given attention Headlines don't convict foreign agents, but close surveillance traps whole spy networks that too early disclosure would break up.

4—Don't accept gossip and don't pass it on. The rumor method is the Axis' favorite weapon among civilians.

5—Don't be suspicious merely because persons have foreign-sounding names.

6—"And remember, Hoover finishes, "your efforts may warn the quarry and nullify months of work by the FBI. Don't play amateur detective."

Homeroom Mothers Of PTA Seek Closer Contacts At School

As a means of promoting a better understanding between the school and parents, 27 new P.T.A. home-room mothers met for tea last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Dedrich to discuss the most favorable method in which they could visit mothers of school age children and bring them into closer contact with the teachers and the school program. Mrs. Robert E Toms, chairman of the group, presented them with a list of mothers which included the hours when they would be available.

OFFICERS HAVE A DAY AT 6T OAKS ESTATE

Army enlisted men took a back seat Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dudley of 67 Oaks entertained many commissioned officers as part of their private U.S.O. program. The swimming pool, badminton and tennis courts, game rooms, gardens and barbecue pit, at which Mr. Dudley officiated, were all turned over to the officers who partook of the Dudley's hospitality.

Here's another reason why we will keep 'em rolling!

On July 31, 5,137 Southern Pacific men were serving in our country's armed forces; on August 31, 5,836 men; and on September 15, 6,214. That's a lot of men from one organization!

To these men, the ideal of service is nothing new. Railroading has always inspired devotion to duty, and a conductor wears the stars on his sleeve just as proudly as a sailor wears his "hash marks."

We miss these men badly, for we worked side by side with them. We also miss their long training and experience in railroad work—training and experience that just can't be replaced overnight. But we're going to do our best to back these men up, wherever they may be.

We who are left have the job of getting troops, equipment and war materials over the line to the places where they're needed, when they're needed. And though the traffic peak in the next few months will be the greatest we have ever faced, we promise our men in the service that we will not let them down.

So if you see an extra glint of determination in an engineer's eye, or a passenger representative on the road night and day accompanying troop trains, or a section hand swinging his pick as if the ballast were full of Japs—you'll know why they have a personal interest in this war, and a personal determination to do their part to keep 'em rolling.

The War Bonds you buy now will help pay for one of those swell new post-war automobiles.

S·P

One $18.75 War Bond will buy four 37mm. shells.

Generosity of a Sierra Madre woman who has donated a modern electric cabinet sewing machine to the Red Cross is a major help in speeding up production, according to C. W. Jones, chairman, who announced that the donor wishes to remain anonymous.

Horse Rescued By Rangers After Fall From High Cliff

"We've rescued plenty of people, but this is the first time we've ever rescued a horse," declared Santa Anita District Ranger C. E. "Pat" Harlan and acting ranger Fred Meyer, Tuesday evening after cutting 30 feet of trail through heavy brush in the Chantry Flats area.

The horse ridden by Miss Barbara Lee Durkee of Arcadia slipped from the trail along a high cliff enroute to Chantry Flats and although both horse and rider were uninjured the horse refused to respond to all efforts of the rangers to make him backle the back up to the trail. Therefore they spent a good part of the afternoon cutting brush for a trail which the horse would follow.

Huge Quantities Of Food Consumed By A Single Human

In his life a human being consumes a tremendous amount of food. In 70 years he eats 1,400 times his body weight— over 200,000 pounds of material.

The amount of food that he will take includes 6,000 loaves of bread, three oxen, four calves, four hogs, four sheep and 300 chickens. The amount of fish taken will include 2,000 large fish, 3,000 sardines, flounders and herring.

He will eat about 9,000 pounds of potatoes; 12,000 pounds of other vegetables; 14,000 pounds of fruit and 6,000 quarts of milk. He will take in also 12,000 quarts of coffee; 1,000 pounds of salt; 5,000 eggs; 8,000 pounds of sugar; 2,000 pounds of cheese; 10,000 quarts of water; and a lot of smaller delicacies.—Youth Today.

TOOL USERS AND TOOL OWNERS

In a recent advertisement signed by a well-known business concern, this statement appeared: "My boss has 14 Grand tied up in me."

What that slangy use of words meant was that the average employee in industry represents a capital investment—in property, plant, machinery and equipment—of $14,000. In other words, labor has jobs only when some business man, or group of investors, puts up the money necessary for the creation of jobs.

It was well said recently, by a student of economics, that men in governmental authority too often forget that while the rights of workers are being considered, the owner of the tools used by workers must also have some consideration.

After this war is over, the plants now devoted to military needs must be re-converted to peace-time activity; must be re-tooled for the kind of production they were engaged in when it became necessary to tool up for war. Labor will expect peace-time jobs then, but somebody must provide the money for re-converting and re-tooling. That money cannot be forthcoming unless enough profits or capital can be stored up to meet such requirements.

ENSIGN VISITS HERE

Ensign Ivo A. Bauman of Mt. Angel, Ore., who is enroute to the Naval Training Station at the University of Arizona, has been enjoying a stop-over in Sierra Madre to visit his aunt, Mrs. Ellen Bauman of North Mt. Trail avenue.

INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS AFTER THE WAR

Every American knows that the manufacture of automobiles has ceased for the duration of the war.

The great automobile industry which in 1940 produced and sold more than 3½ million cars, has been re-tooled to produce airplanes, guns, tanks and munitions of war. Where will these companies get the money necessary to resume the manufacture of automobiles when the war is ended?

The automobile industry happens to be important, and there are thousands of smaller industries which will also face the same problem.

What will the millions of workers do when the demand for war machines stops?

What will happen to the domestic market for farm products when those millions of war workers no longer have jobs?

The stage seems set for an even worse depression after World War II than we suffered after World War I unless right now we start to plan about these surpluses.

It is comforting to learn that Congress is now considering some plan to prevent, or at least to ease, any after-the-war depression.

War Profits for Peace-Time Recovery.

The best plan seems to contemplate the dedication of a portion of war profits for the purpose of providing industry with the ready cash on hand to quickly change to peace-time activity and thus lessen the shock to manufacturing and agricultural surpluses when the war is ended.

A Recovery Bond program has been suggested whereby each industry, big and little, will be required to invest at least 20 per cent of its war profits in Recovery Bonds which do not bear interest until the war is ended and which cannot be sold by the purchaser until peace is declared.

Such a plan would build, at the rate of almost a billion dollars a year, a huge recovery reserve to convert war industries to peace production, launch new products and maintain employment. It would place this reserve immediately and automatically in the hands of those businesses and industries with the greatest after-the-war needs.

The moment peace is declared the "time lock" automatically releases this recovery reserve, the bonds become negotiable and begin to draw interest. Purchasers holding them will then treat them like any other Government bonds, to be sold or used to borrow money. There would be no waiting for a post-war Congressional appropriation, no red tape, and no delay in launching the business and industry offensive that may turn threatened depression into unrivaled prosperity.

The plan is simple, practical and fair.

During late years science and research have discovered many new uses for present major farm crops and many new crops which can be used in industry. A plan of this character places immediately in the hands of industry the resources which can be used to finance further research and to plan for the conversion of surplus crops, surplus factory buildings and the employment of war workers in new and useful enterprises whenever this war shall cease and normal peace-time industry, business and agriculture shall be resumed.

This problem deserves the thoughtful consideration of every American. If we can have the assurance of reasonable security in the after-the-war recovery period we can throw ourselves into an all-out effort to win the war and feel that by so doing we have secured "the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."
